IT Specialist Device Configuration and Management exam update coming soon

As Microsoft prepares to retire Windows 10 this year, in parallel we have updated the IT Specialist Device Configuration and Management exam with Windows 11 concepts.

We have made minor adjustments to the objective domains for Windows 10 and Windows 11, specifically points 2.2 and 4.2. If you have a license, voucher, or inventory for Device Configuration and Management, you will not need to make any updates to your testing center.

When learners are ready for the exam, they should select the Device Configuration and Management exam. They will be given the option to choose Device Configuration and Management Windows 10 or Device Configuration and Management Windows 11, depending on which platform they used to prepare. The certificate will be the same but the score report will reflect Windows 10 or Windows 11.

Our valued learning partners are working as quickly as possible to update their content to reflect this change. We are anticipating LearnKey, GMetrix and Brain Buffet to have their content reflect Windows 11 throughout this year. Updates to Arabic, Chinese Simplified, Chinese Traditional, Spanish, French and Portuguese will be coming at a later time.

New year, new advice

Tips for teaching in a mixed classroom

As an educator, you know what it's like to teach in a mixed classroom, one that's comprised of students with diverse backgrounds, varied academic levels, different primary languages, and unique personal circumstances.

To help navigate this complex environment, we've gathered some insights and tips from Jenny Mohess, our CERTIFIED Ambassador and 2024 CERTIFIED Educator of the Year, who has decades of experience in mixed classrooms in Florida. Read on for her tips on teaching in a mixed-ability classroom.
