Attention, creative educators!

Teaching tomorrow's marketers and creators?

Creative educators, you prepare students for often demanding and dynamic marketing and creative careers. But in a field that's constantly changing, equipping them with useful skills and experiences can be difficult.

We sat down with three Meta and Adobe educators to get their insights on preparing future marketers and creators for the workforce. Ready for some helpful takeaways you can use in your classroom?

Exam delivery alert — Compatibility issue for Adobe exams

Scope of impact: Compass for Mac users, Adobe Certified Professional exams

We have discovered that Apple's recent release of macOS Sequoia versions 15.4.1 and 15.5 is interfering with the launch of all Live-in-the-App (LITA) Adobe Certified Professional exams on the Compass for Mac platform.

Our teams are investigating this issue. In the meantime, if your CATC delivers Adobe exams on Compass for Mac, we strongly advise you to postpone updating your computers to macOS Sequoia 15.4.1 or later until we have released a solution to address the issue.

If you have already updated your computers to macOS Sequoia 15.4.1 or later, please use Compass Cloud to deliver Adobe Certified Professional exams until further notice.
